1999, c.H-0.021, s.32.

Oral request for access

- (b) a trustee from responding to an oral request.

1999, c.H-0.021, s.33.

Written request for access

34(1) An individual may, in accordance with the regulations, make a written request for access to personal health information about himself or herself that is contained in a record in the custody or control of a trustee.

(2) A written request for access must:

- (b) contain sufficient detail to enable the trustee to identify the personal health information requested.

(3) An applicant must prove his or her identity to the satisfaction of the trustee.

(4) The right to make an application for review pursuant to section 42 applies only to written requests for access.

1999, c.H-0.021, s.34.

- (3) The failure of a trustee to respond to a written request for access within the period mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) is deemed to be a decision to refuse to provide access to the personal health information, unless the written request for access is transferred to another trustee pursuant to clause (1)(d).

1999, c.H-0.021, s.36.

Extension of time

37(1) A trustee may extend the period set out in subsection 36(1) for a reasonable period not exceeding 30 days where:

 - (b) disclosure of the information would reveal personal health information about another person who has not expressly consented to the disclosure;
 - (c) disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to identify a third party, other than another trustee, who supplied the information in confidence under circumstances in which confidentiality was reasonably expected;

 - (e) the information was collected principally in anticipation of, or for use in, a civil, criminal or quasi-judicial proceeding; or
 - (f) disclosure of the information could interfere with a lawful investigation or be injurious to the enforcement of an Act or regulation.
- (2) Where a record contains information to which an applicant is refused access, the trustee shall grant access to as much of the record as can reasonably be severed without disclosing the information to which the applicant is refused access.
- (3) Where access to personal health information is refused pursuant to clause (1)(d), a trustee must refer the applicant to the trustees from which the personal health information was collected.

- (4) Subject to subsection (6), where a trustee makes an amendment or adds a notation pursuant to clause (1)(b), the trustee must, where practicable, give notice of the amendment or notation to any other trustee or person to whom the personal health information has been disclosed by the trustee within the period of one year immediately before the amendment was requested.
- (5) A trustee that receives a notice pursuant to subsection (4) must make the amendment or add the notation to any record in the custody or control of the trustee that contains personal health information respecting the individual who requested the amendment.
- (6) A trustee is not required to notify other trustees where:
- (a) an amendment or a notation cannot reasonably be expected to have an impact on the ongoing provision of health services to the individual; or
 - (b) the personal health information was disclosed to the other trustees for any of the purposes or in any of the circumstances set out in subsection 27(2).
- (7) An amendment required to be made pursuant to this section must not destroy or obliterate existing information in the record being amended, other than registration information.
